Authentic, Available, Affirming

Available.

Hear these words from your Lutheran Youth Organization.

- Be there to give us a phone call or Text Message to let us know you are thinking about us and what we are doing.
- Listen carefully as we tell you about the joys and sorrows in our lives
- you have to be speed-dial material
- come see our school plays our sports events, let us know you care.

The quantity verses quality time debate stops here. Ever wonder why that debate got started? Let's just say it wasn't because we were spending way too much time with those we love.

We spend more time in front of the TV than interacting with our children and youth. Turn off that TV, have a family game night and if there aren't kids in your home – go find some in your congregation or neighborhood. No need to spend money, just sit and listen. Being available opens the possibility of being a person of vital faith in the lives of our kids. Don't miss the opportunity. It's more than quality, it's holy ground.
