Bible Focus Luke 20:27-38

27Some of the Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to Jesus with a question. 28"Teacher," they said, "Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies and leaves a wife but no children, the man must marry the widow and have children for his brother. 29Now there were seven brothers. The first one married a woman and died childless. 30The second 31and then the third married her, and in the same way the seven died, leaving no children. 32Finally, the woman died too. 33Now then, at the resurrection whose wife will she be, since the seven were married to her?" 34Jesus replied, "The people of this age marry and are given in marriage. 35But those who are considered worthy of taking part in that age and in the resurrection from the dead will neither marry nor be given in marriage, 36and they can no longer die; for they are like the angels. They are God's children, since they are children of the resurrection. 37But in the account of the bush, even Moses showed that the dead rise, for he calls the Lord 'the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.' 38He is not the God of the dead, but of the living, for to him all are alive."

The Word of the Lord! THANKS BE TO GOD!

1. What didn't the Sadducees believe in?
2. What question did they ask Jesus?
3. Jesus tells the Sadducees that the "people of THIS age" – the age of life when you're living – get married. Then He tells them that the people taking part in the age of the resurrection – the age of life when you believe in God – will never die. Jesus tells them that our God is not the God of the dead but of the _____. Where will Christians live forever?
4. Do you think it's okay to ask God questions? Why or why not?

What do you think happens to us when we die?

Set the timer for three minutes. Have each person close his or her eyes and draw a picture of what heaven might look like. When the timer goes off, open your eyes and share what you drew!
